

National symposium on Chemistry concludes at PRSU

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, Feb 4

THE 22nd CRSI National Symposium and 12th CRSI – Royal Society of Chemistry Meeting concluded on Sunday at Pt Ravishankar Shukla University (PRSU), Raipur. The symposium witnessed participation of around 250 research scholars and scientists from across the nation and abroad.

The first technical session of the day was conducted by Professor C Pulla Rao from Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Mumbai followed by the second session of the day was conducted by Professor Pawan Kumar Bhamra from Kurukshetra University who spoke about Drug Design and its application.

Research scholars and professors during a group photo at the valedictory function of national symposium on Sunday.

Professor Alaknanda Hazra addressed the third session of the day. Pallav Basuri from American Chemical Society (IIT Madras), Nidhi Patel from INST Mohali, Suparna Pal from CSIR-CMERI Durgapur, Manjubala from IIT Roorkee, Geetika M from IISC Bangalore, T Magre from Madras University, Aditya Bhattacharya from IGNOU Tribal University were awarded.

Imran Kazi from IIT Madras and Deepa Oberoi from IIT Roorkee were honoured on behalf of Royal Society of Chemistry. Similarly, young teacher Dr Manmohan Lal Satnami was honoured.

CRSI president Professor N Sathyamurthy presided over the closing ceremony.